

Contextual and estetic aspect of the project

Historically this area was a shipyard and the river which is near the site is a powerful ship path. Form of pavilions I decided styled interpreted as a ship or part of a ship. Prohres in renewable energy technologies is depicted along with shipbuilding. Also I pay attention on the statue of a little mermaide which is situated in the opposite coast of the river.

interpretation of shipbuilding in pavilions

Video translation

Broadcast from the opposite shore on which is situated a famous statue`a little mermaide` to the surface of the construction of the pavilion. Attendance of this virtual statue represents and emphasizes the romanticism of the place as all of Copenhagen. People can see an opposite shore and contpol the camera angle to see all the beuty of this place.
