

ACTIONS

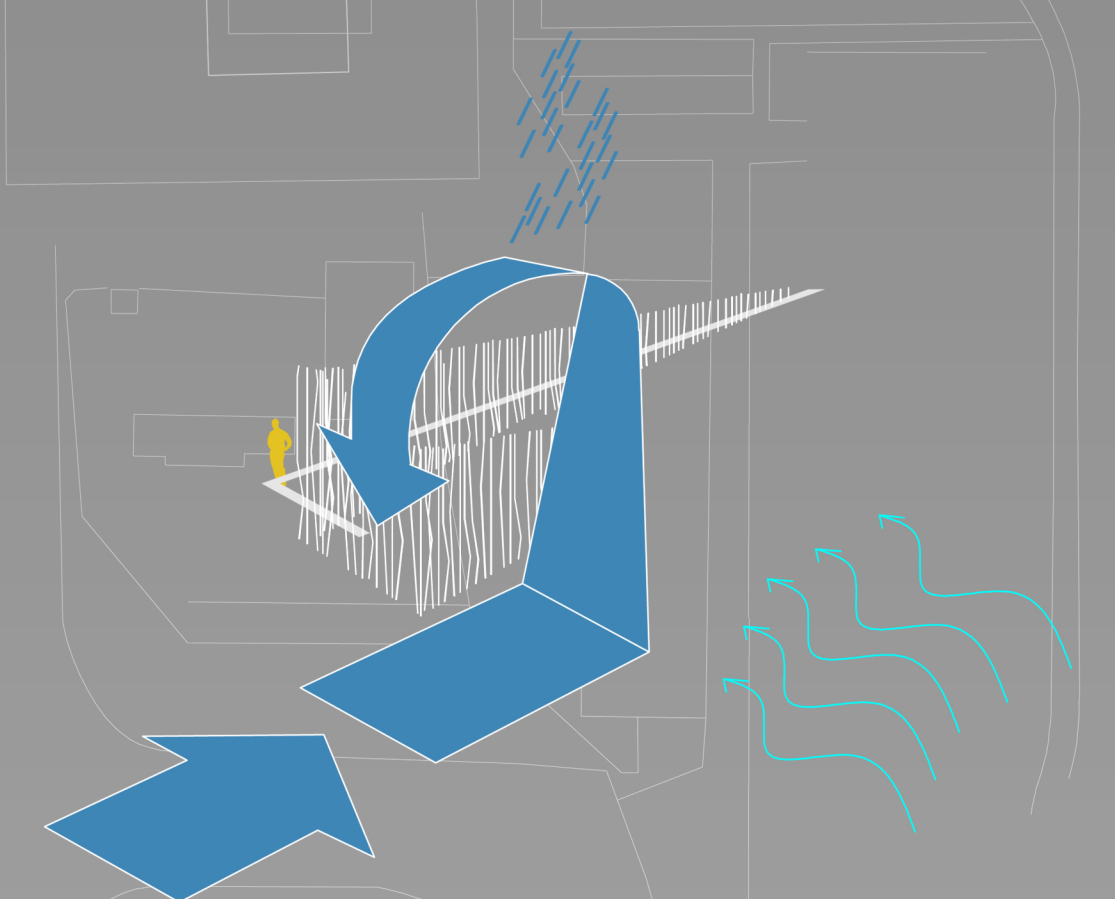

The project ideally refers to the shipyard
 - the wind shape the structure
 - the water excavate the site to create a perspective of canal's scenario to enhance the connections between the site and the surrounding landscape to build the technologies trough the flows of natural elements and free energy and to minimize any environmental impacts