

The Symbiotic Island

The proposal will harness natural resources to generate clean energy without creating greenhouse gas emissions or pollute its surroundings. Create biodiversity: The sculptures will positively enhance the biodiversity of the site by creating semi-open structures. This will allow for variation of local species of plants, flowers and insects, to generate a diverse local ecosystem and generate functional connections between species.

Site layout plan

Aerial view of sculpture