

WIND GLADE

Wind Glade is bio-mimicry inspired public art which generates commercial scale renewable energy, thus seeking to unify the natural and industrial. Sitting at the intersection of our society's need for energy, and our personal need for organic surroundings, Wind Glade offers both beauty and electricity.

Beauty through the unification of light, sound, and shelter; electricity by harnessing Copenhagen's strongest natural energy resource – The Wind.