

The ideology of the project.

Copenhagen is one of the most important cities in Scandinavia, located in the picturesque ravine of the Sound, on the islands of Zealand and Amager, and it is guarded by the most famous Mermaid. Urban layout of the city shows the rich historical past of the city. The Park Langelinie is worth to pay attention. There is a well-preserved citadel. The construction of the citadel was initiated by Christian IV, but its present shape was formed during the reign of Frederick III. This place is adjacent to the area, given to the competition, it is very interesting and characteristic base of defense architecture. Copenhagen is also a friendly city to people. There are also many parks and squares, which immediately engage both residents and tourists, where you can relax after a busy and tiring sightseeing. It is an ideal place for walking and cycling. These factors contributed to introduction of my design concept. My desire was to join the historical, cultural and economic values;
